I. Follow Me and I Will Make You

A. Matt 4: 18 – 22

And Jesus, walking by the Sea of Galilee, saw two brothers, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. Then He said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men." They immediately left their nets and followed Him. Going on from there, He saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets. He called them, and immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed Him.

B. Mark 1:16-20

And as He walked by the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. Then Jesus said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you become fishers of men." They immediately left their nets and followed Him. When He had gone a little farther from there, He saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the boat mending their nets. And immediately He called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went after Him.

1. Follow - akoloutheō

To accompany, go along with, go the same way with, one who proceeds
Akoloutheō is being on the same roadway with someone, since the word was easily used for soldiers, servants, and pupils, it can easily be transferred to the life of a Christian. In 78 gospel occurrences it is used 77 times of following Jesus. Metamorphically, it is used for discipleship.

Matt 28:19-20 Go therefore and make disciples (followers) of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age."

II. Mending the Nets analogy

A. Luke 5: 4-7

When He had stopped speaking, He said to Simon, "Launch out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch." But Simon answered and said to Him, "Master, we have toiled all night and caught nothing; nevertheless at Your word I will let down the net."

And when they had done this, they caught a great number of fish, and their net was breaking. So they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink.

1. their net was breaking

B. John 21: 3-11

Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing."

They said to him, "We are going with you also." They went out and immediately got into the boat, and that night they caught nothing. But when the morning had now come, Jesus stood on the shore; yet the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Then Jesus said to them, "Children, have you any food?" They answered Him, "No."

And He said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast, and now they were not able to draw it in because of the multitude of fish. Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his outer garment (for he had removed it), and plunged into the sea. But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from land, but about two hundred cubits), dragging the net with fish. Then, as soon as they had come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have just caught." Simon Peter went up and dragged the net to land, full of large fish, one hundred and fifty-three; and although there were so many, the net was not broken.

1. their net was not broken

VI. Eph 2:8-10 Good works prepared before hand

VIII. All Scripture is Profitable

A. 2 Tim 3:16-17

All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine (teaching), for reproof (exposing errors and beliefs not based on truth), for correction (set on course, set in order, right road to arrive at the destination), for instruction in righteousness (skilled in the Word of Righteousness in order to discern good from evil), that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped (mended, well fitted, be made fully ready) for every good work.

B. 2 Pet 1:19-21

And so we have the prophetic word confirmed, which you do well to heed as a light that shines in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts; knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture is of any private interpretation, for prophecy never came by the will of man, but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit.

1. Peter states that the written Word of God is the most certain form of the Word of God.
2. If Peter's experience with Jesus Himself is said by Peter to be subordinate to the "more sure" Word of the Scriptures, we have both a guideline and an ultimate statement.
3. The guideline is that no experience holds greater authority than the Word of God.
4. The written Word is our safety net so to speak.
5. The Word is the truth and the Holy Spirit leads us and guides us into all the truth of the Written Word.

IX. Jesus has Called each Member of the Church (the Body of Christ) into the Ministry of Reconciliation

A. 2 Cor. 5:17-21

1. Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new. Now all things are of God, who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation, that is, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not imputing their trespasses to them, and has committed to us the word of reconciliation. Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were pleading through us: we implore you on Christ's behalf, be reconciled to God. For He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.
2. Reconcile - To change or exchange, reestablish, restore relationships, make things right, remove an enmity
Five times the word reconcile refers to God's making things right between us and Himself through the life, death and resurrection of his Son Jesus.
Describes the reestablishing of a proper loving, interpersonal relationship which has been broken or disrupted (Rom 5:10) (2 Cor 5:18)
3. Reconciliation – Restoration to Divine favor, to the grace of God, to change the nature of a thing; A change from a state of enmity between persons to one of friendship. To be brought back into friendship from a state of disagreement or enmity.
4. Ambassadors – representative of a ruling authority
5. might become – to have come into existence or simply to be
6. We have all been called back to union and friendship with God by what Jesus has done. God has given every Christian the ministry of reconciliation; that is reconciling men to Himself and to each other in Christ Jesus.
